“HISTORICAL CAPITALISM AND INTERNATIONAL LAW”

COLLOQUE JUNIOR DU CIERA – YOUNG SCHOLARS’ CONFERENCE

The conference “Historical Capitalism and International Law” will take place on the 18th and 19th January 2018 at Sciences Po Law School, Paris, as part of CIERA’s programme colloques juniors. Young scholars will explore the topic, underlining the particularities of capitalism as a social construction embedding several economic, social, political and cultural dimensions, all of which can be further articulated through analysing the legal dimension. Departing from the material reality of capitalism to analyse its origins, functioning, current challenges and the prospect of its potential future developments, the conference will focus on the nature and evolution of economic and social institutions, their role in the exchanges and movement of peoples, ideas and commodities, as well as the way through which encounters, confrontations and interactions have shaped them in turn.

Thursday, 18 January 2018 / 12:30 - 19:30

Amphithéâtre Erignac (13, rue de l’Université – Paris 7ème)

Friday, 19 January 2018 / 9:00 - 19:00

Salle Goguel (56, rue des Saints Pères – Paris 7ème)
